

THE FELLOWSHIP FOR BIBLICAL STUDIES CONFERENCE

26–28 September 2023

40 Edwards St, North Sydney.

CALL FOR PAPERS

CLOSES 14 JULY 2023

We invite proposals for papers on:

- Hebrew Bible
- New Testament
- Apocrypha, Pseudepigrapha, and Cognate Literature
- Indigenous scholarship
- Feminist scholarship
- Environment and Ecology
- Gender and Sexuality
- History of Interpretation
- Textual Criticism and Early Translations of the Bible (including Qumran and LXX)
- Teaching Biblical Studies and Biblical Languages
- Connecting Testaments: Gospel, Prophets, Practice
- The Bible and Archaeology
- Or an 'elevator pitch' - a short (3-5 minute) overview of your current research, a recently published paper/book/chapter, or an Honours/Masters or PhD thesis

Proposals for a paper should include:

- Title
- Abstract (approximately 250 words)
- Your name and a brief bio.
- Which session would best suit your paper
- If proposing an elevator pitch, include whether your pitch is related to a HDR thesis, publication, or other research.

Papers are required to be presented in-person.

You are welcome to submit proposals for more than one paper

Please submit your proposal(s) to the organising committee by Friday 14th July 2023 via <https://fbs.org.au/2023conf>

EARLY BIRD PRICES

PRICE ENDS 31ST JULY

Three-Day Conference Price:

Student FBS member: $100

FBS member: $120

Non-member student: $150

Non-member: $170

Register at

<https://events.humanitix.com/2023-sydney-fellowship-for-biblical-studies-conference>

Registration closes
31st August 2023.

If non-members apply for an FBS membership they can take advantage of the members' rate. Join here <https://www.fbs.org.au/membership>

CONFERENCE DETAILS

DATES: 26-28 September 2023

VENUE: Australian Catholic University
40 Edwards St, North Sydney